

Volunteering with us

Redstone FM relies on the work of volunteers, not just on air but with the many essential behind the scenes tasks.

Whilst we won't start broadcasting until the early part of 2012, we are now recruiting volunteers to help in the planning and preparation prior to our launch. In the coming months we will be organising training and support sessions.

Attached are our current opportunities for volunteering with us.

However if you feel you have skills or experience you want to offer, or just want to help, please don't hesitate to contact our Volunteer Co-ordinator.
